DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

EXHIBITION-2023 (01.12.23 & 02.12.23)

The English Department at Harimohan Ghose College organised an enthralling Literary Exhibition on 01.12.2023 & 02.12.2023 in Seminar Hall 1 & 2 in New Building.

Objectives of the Exhibition:

To raise awareness among students and visitors about the significance and beauty of English literature.

To provide an opportunity for teachers and learners to present various topics through models, and charts and provide an alternative medium to read and understand literary works.

Highlights and Exhibits:

The exhibition was meticulously curated to present literature thematically, highlighting Popular Literature and Literary Types, Rhetoric & Prosody.

The event featured projects and presentations by students, providing a platform for students from English department to showcase their creative achievements.

Impact and Relevance:

The exhibition created an intellectual and immersive atmosphere, allowing visitors to engage critically with literary works.

The event brought together students, and teachers, from nearby schools and colleges fostering interdisciplinary discussions and collaborations across different departments.

By welcoming the public, the exhibition expanded its influence beyond the college premises, strengthening ties between the institution and the community.
