Title of the Paper: Moum Ka Matam

It is paly based on brutal rape case in New Delhi in 2013. Essence of this play is the way of protest. After every painful incident, we start protest with lighting candle and go back to home – it became a fashion trend now-a-days. But for social revolution, we need to do more than that – that’s the main idea narrated in this paper.

Abstract

In the last few decades, sustainability has been the focus of intense discussions due to the vital role of the manufacturing industry in nation building in national economies and their environmental and social aspects. The manufacturing sector has been given a major focus by the Indian Government of late. Over the years, the manufacturing sector has contributed significantly to India's GDP. The present Indian Government's slogan of 'Make in India' initiative is to revitalize the Indian manufacturing industry, especially for small and medium enterprises (SMEs) and make it an attractive investment destination. Due to its unique position in the Indian economy, the manufacturing industry is the backbone of the Indian economy in terms of its economic, social and environmental aspects. Sustainability may be the only economic sustainability of manufacturing industry in India - that means whether it is being influenced by Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) or not. The growth of this sector is influenced by several factors. From the existing literature, it is often reported that FDI inflows have a positive impact on the growth of the manufacturing industry. This paper empirically examines the role of FDI in the growth of the manufacturing industry-Exchange Rate, Gross Fixed Capital Formation and Growth of Manufacturing Industry Production in India for the period from 1980 to 2016 from World Bank and CBOI, INDIA.

এখন প্রেম : জ্ঞানময় আশাবাদ
স্বত্বপর্ণা দাস

রাষ্ট্রের বিকলে এসে আসবে গরিব মিশে যায় যদি
অন্ধকার ঘিরে গেলে গর্তে আসবে অন্ধকার
সমস্ত যুগের থেকে মুখভরা মুখে যায় যদি
ভোমার জন্মের মধ্যে ভেঙ্গে যায় সব পারাপার।<sup>১</sup>

—এসে যায় সম্পর্কের সেক্টর। নিষ্ঠ হয়ে যায় অনুভূতির জল। ছুটি হবার প্রাকৃতিক হলে
কোলা জলে তুলে দেয় আমোদ আশ্রয়মায়া। অস্তর সোফের রাজা আলোয় উত্থকে যদি
মুখে ফেরে 'আলোকে' তখন। পুষ্প আর তপুই শব্দের অলপাত। শোনা যায় হোলের
নিপুনের হার্ট জলপ। যে নিপুনের উৎসাহিত থেকে যায় স্বাভাৱ্য পর-দায়িত্ব জন্য
নির্ভরনা অনন্য অমৃতবের করে পর। তৎপরিচয় ঘোলের 'এখন প্রেম' পৃষ্ঠা হয়ে গর্তে
একরে টবে আঁকে পড়া শাসনোত্তরী মহামগনের ইতিকথন।

যার দুটি শব্দ। শিবোনাম অজ্ঞেই যদি করে মনোযোগী পাঠকের দৈনিক দুটি।
জ্ঞানময় তুল্যভবে অপরিহার্য হয়ে গর্তে কোম শব্দ 'এখন' না 'প্রেম'। 'স্বত্বপর্ণা' থেকে
শিল্পী সঙ্ঘের সঙ্গে 'আলো' মুক্ত তৎপরিচয় নিশ্চিতভাবেই তো পড়িলে 'এখন' তখন
মায়ের আকাঙ্ক্ষা। কিন্তু অসামান্য থেকে কি পরিচয়ী কেহোতে কখনো প্রেমের চিত্রশীলী
নবশিল্পীরাটি ও রঙ-প্রতিভার এই শব্দভার বিদ্যে হতে হতে পঠক গ্রন্থে করেন অস্বাভাব্য
পুনোভায়ে।

আনন্দময় কিছু আবেগ-সংগে। বিকর্ষনের সঙ্গোমক গৌরব থেকে যায় যে অস্বাভাব্য।
এমনই প্রাথমিক যাত্রা তো আমোদের। বিকর্ষনশীল সমগ্র কি মনোকে ঈর্ষিত সে যে সেই
আবেগের অটুত পায়োভায়ে? না। কালের কাল আনন্দ থেকে ঈর্ষিতের চিত্রশীলী আবেগের
নির্ভর করে সেম নতুন এক কৌশল। পাতক সেম পরিচয়। কলম আসে হারিসে। অন্ধকারে
তা এক। অন্ধকারে বিকর্ষনের সেক্ষেত্রেরী প্রত্যেক কি সময় ও জটিল সৌন্দর্যময় মুখে মনে
জান।

১৩৭৮ সালের সারদায় 'সেবা ও বেধ' পত্রিকায় প্রথম প্রকাশ পায়। মধ্যমিক কোলা

Foreign Institutional Investment and Indian Stock Market: A Study of Relationship

Author: Pallab Pyne, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, Harimohan Ghose College, Kolkata, WB, India.

Abstract
Foreign Institutional Investment (FII) in India has been increasing steadily since the early 1990s. This study aims to analyze the relationship between FII and the Indian stock market. The study uses time series data from 1990 to 2020 and employs the Granger causality test and the Vector Autoregression (VAR) model. The results show that there is a significant positive relationship between FII and the Indian stock market. The study also finds that the Indian stock market has a significant impact on FII. The study concludes that the Indian stock market is an important source of FII and that the Indian government should continue to attract FII to the Indian stock market.

Title of the paper: SUKUMARER GOLPO: AJGUBI SAHITYER GANTCHORA

Stories written by Sukumar Roy are the valuable resource of our Bengali literature. His stories are the beautiful combination of the real world and the imaginary world. When we read "Pagla Dasu", we seem to walk through our down memory lane of our loving school days. Stories are free from any moral values. He wrote such children-literature which was very different from such stories of that time. His stories are the magical representation of expectation, achievements, and behavioural changes of children.

ABSTRACT
Several countries across the world have implemented gender budgeting initiatives. Gender budgeting work has done in America and South Africa. The constitution of India has mandated equality every citizen of the country as a fundamental right. In reality women in India continue to face disparities in work, in and control over resources, their disparities are reflected in indicators of health, nutrition, literacy, educational attainment, skill levels and occupational status among others. The term Gender Budgeting has become a catch all phrase to describe various government initiatives that seek to address gender issues in the domain of public expenditure and policy. It already promoted women's development through allocation of budgetary funds for women's development programmes. It can help in India's economic inequalities, between men and women as well as between the rich and the poor. Hence, the budgetary policies need to keep the consideration the gender dynamics operating in the economy and in the social sector. It is important to create a general awareness and understanding of the problem women's employment in all the top policy and decision making and ensure personnel. Through social and economic empowerment and gender justice, we can eliminate all forms of gender discrimination.

Keywords: gender budgeting, gender discrimination, empowerment, economic inequalities, budgetary policies.

Abstract: Environmental contamination is one of the major global problems in the present time. Heavy metal pollution and its adverse effects on the environment are a serious concern. It is essential to monitor the pollution of heavy metals in the environment and to take the necessary steps to reduce it. In vitro cultures of plants are a promising approach to phytoremediation of heavy metals. This review article discusses the various aspects of in vitro cultures of plants for phytoremediation of heavy metals. The article covers the selection of plant species, the establishment of in vitro cultures, and the monitoring and evaluation of the in vitro cultures. The article also discusses the various factors that affect the growth and development of in vitro cultures of plants. The article concludes that in vitro cultures of plants are a promising approach to phytoremediation of heavy metals.

Keywords: In vitro cultures, phytoremediation, heavy metals

1. Introduction

Environmental pollution is a serious global issue affecting the well-being of all living beings. Pollution, either organic or inorganic, can be harmful to the environment as a result of local geographical processes, natural events, or human activities. Anthropogenic activities, especially the use of fossil fuels, have led to a significant increase in global pollution (Chatterjee, 2012; Wu et al., 2018). Among the pollutants are heavy metals.

Bamasundari Debi was first Bengali woman essayist. Through her writings, she gave a new way out how to boost up wealth of our country. She also emphasized on usefulness of travelling. She raised questions how to eradicate so called superstitious belief, social discrimination, how to develop health consciousness of pregnant woman. She thought that a friendly relationship between couple paved their journey smooth. It is really mesmerizing how a woman could place such revolutionary question beyond that time.

An Insight into the Domestic Violence against women in Indian society

Shehnaz Salahuddin

Abstract:-

It is an undeniable fact that as earlier whether in country or in society we reside in, it is the women who are the most vulnerable lot and discriminated against. Today, we stand in the 21st century and claim ourselves to be very developed and progressive. We take pride in declaring that women today are empowered. However, there is one aspect which has become in fact a part and parcel of women's life, i.e. violence against women. Violence which takes place against women within the four walls of their home is largely unaccounted for. The main reason behind this is that women themselves feel that conflict at home would disturb the status-quo and peace of the family and thus they remain as mute spectators to the violence and neither report it to them by their partners. Over time they also come to believe that in patriarchal society such as India, violence against them is the norm of the day. It is alarming to note that over 99% complaints were registered in the "Protection of Women against Domestic Violence" category in 2022. These cases accounted for around 23% of the 36,930 complaints registered by NCW across different categories of crimes against women. The data further depicts that over the years there has been a trend of rising number of complaints made to the NCW. A detailed analysis of the data further shows that the rising no. of complaints during the COVID-19 phase. This chapter seeks to look into the various forms violence meted out to women, the measures taken by the government in order to stop violence and also suggest certain proposals which might aid in stopping violence and abuse against women.

Introduction

Foreign Institutional Investment (FII) is one of the prime sources of the portfolio capital for any emerging economies. The remarkable economic growth during the past three decades in most of the developing countries, like India was spurred by foreign capital inflows from developed countries. Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) were allowed to trade in India in the month of September, 1992 as part of the liberalisation process to overcome the Balance of Payments (BoP) crisis in 1990-1991 (Vasumant, 2001). In the month of December, 2020, FIIs invested Rs. 56,643 crore in equity instruments and Rs. 3,451 crore in debt instruments in India. According to the report of the India Brand Equity Foundation (IBEF), FIIs have invested Rs. 12,90,000 crore in India between 2020 and 2021 (as on September 31, 2020). A negative net inflow of Rs. 169.4 crore was noticed for hybrid securities of FPI in the month of November, 2020 but in the very next month a positive net inflow of Rs. 2,489.1 crore was noticed. At the end of December, 2020, the total assets of FII in India were Rs. 41,82,214 crore, out

CHAPTER 13

FOREIGN INSTITUTIONAL INVESTMENT (FII) AND BSE FINANCIAL SERVICES SECTOR OF INDIAN STOCK MARKET - AN OVERVIEW OF RELATIONSHIP

Dr. Pallab Pyne<sup>1</sup>

Abstract
Since liberalization Foreign Institutional Investment (FII) plays an important role in the Indian economy. Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) are the sophisticated investors as they are always analyzing the market condition prior to invest. Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE), one of the oldest stock exchanges in India. BSE may be termed as the barometer of India economy. BSE has 14 sectoral representations, out of which Banking and Financial sector has the highest sectoral weightage. In this study, the relationship is trying to measure in between equity inflow of FII and BSE Financial services sector in the post-liberalization period. Various econometric tools have been used to investigate the relationship. Johansen Co-integration test confirms the longer relationship between the two. Valid error correction term was found under VECM. Finally, short-run unidirectional causal relation established from BSE Financial services sector to equity inflow of FII under Granger Causality test.

Title of the paper: Bodo hochhi na Budo (Am I Growing or Aging?)

In this poem, the poet compares the present and past scenario in her journey of life. Through her childish eye-lenses what she thought as 'picture-perfect' incidents or relationship, those incidents were proved as disaster in present time. Later the poet realized that actually all are not smooth as butter but it is/was glorified to maintain the status. And it is obvious characteristic in human nature. The poet's actually lamenting over her childish mentality till she crossed her innocent teenage period.
