Sexual Harassment and Domestic Violence against Women held on 17.12.2022

Introduction:

The seminar on the "Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Protection, Prohibition and Redressal) Act was held at Harimohan Ghose College on 17.12.2022. The main objective of the seminar was to raise awareness among the female students, faculty and staff about the Act, its significance and the measures to prevent and address sexual harassment at workplaces. The seminar focused on raising consciousness and knowledge about a safe and respectful environment for all individuals, especially women within the community.

Seminar Overview:

The seminar commenced with the inaugural Address by Dr. Runa Chattopadhyay (Joint Convener of the ICC Committee and Teacher Council Secretary) who briefly addressed the role and responsibilities of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) of the college, informed about the members in the committee, followed by the Welcome Address from the Principal of the college, Dr. Prabir Biswas who expressed his commitment to ensure a harassment free environment in the college campus.

The technical session started with a keynote address by the resource person, Advocate Paromita Bhattacharya who highlighted the importance of the Act in promoting gender equality, dignity and safety which extends beyond traditional workplaces. She emphasised the Act's legal implications and discussed the responsibilities of the employers, employees and ICC in preventing and addressing sexual harassment cases. Participants were also informed about the broad definition of sexual harassment, giving a comprehensive explanation of what are the inappropriate behaviours to be aware of, guidance and information were given about the various reporting process that are available to the victims.

The technical session concluded with an interactive /counselling session with an opportunity to allow the participants to engage actively to clarify their doubts, address their problems and to seek solutions to their problems.

Conclusion:

The seminar on Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Protection, Prohibition and Redressal) Act proved to be highly informative and enlightening. It played an important role in creating awareness, promoting a safe and respectful environment for the female students, faculty and the staff.

Recommendations:

In the light of the seminar's outcome, the following recommendations were proposed for further action

- Conduct regular awareness programmes and workshops to sensitise students, faculty and staff.
- Conduct similar programmes for the male students to create an inclusive campus atmosphere for all.
- Collaborate with experts and provide counselling services to students facing any kind of harassment.

Acknowledgements:

We extend our sincere gratitude to our Resource person Advocate Paromita Bhattacharya, Principal, Dr. Prabir Biswas, teaching and non-teaching members, student participants who made this seminar successful
