Report on “Human Rights Day” Organized by the Department Political Science in collaboration with IQAC

Date: - 10.12.2024

Time: - 12:30 PM Onwards

Objective:

- 1) To reflect on the significance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and its enduring relevance in today’s world.
- 2) To emphasize the need for equality, dignity, and justice for all, irrespective of race, gender, religion, or socio-economic status.
- 3) To recognize and celebrate milestone achievements and contributions made by various activists and organizations in advancing human rights.
- 4) To inspire the students to take tangible steps to uphold and defend human rights.

Key points:

The Department of Political Science in collaboration with the IQAC organised “Human Rights Day” to commemorate the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948). The main objective of the programme was to create awareness of basic human rights and to educate them about the safeguards for their protection.

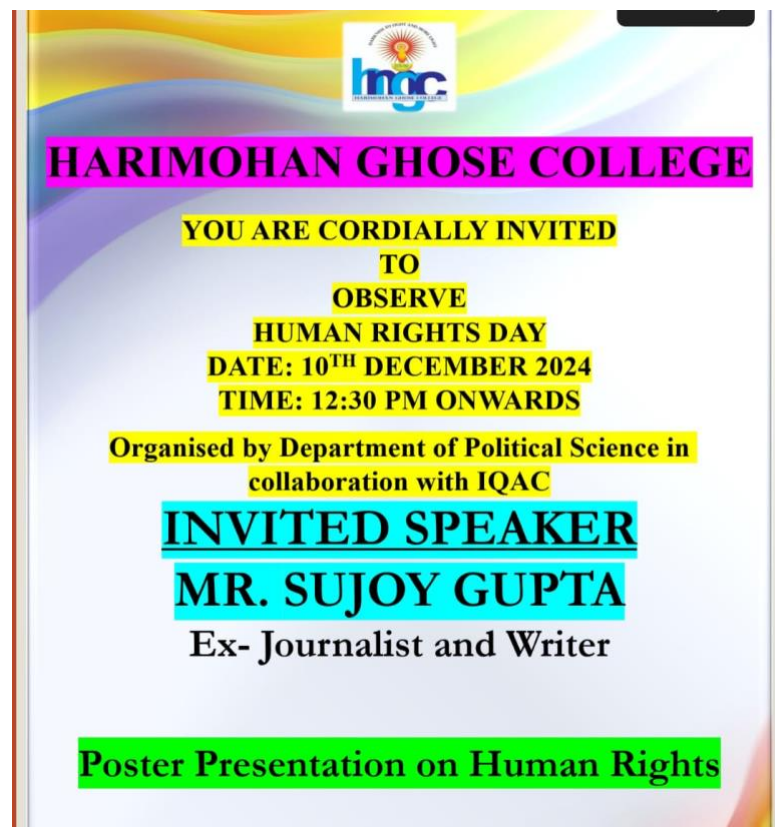

The programme was inaugurated by Dr. Prabir Biswas, Principal of the College. His inaugural address shed the light on the significance of the Human Rights Day and he also encouraged the students to remain active for the protection of their human rights.

Then the programme continued with a speech given by the invited speaker Mr. Sujoy Gupta, (Ex- Journalist and Writer). He explained the students about the significance of Human Rights Day and gave several references of how can students protect their human rights in different circumstances. There was also a Question-and-Answer session between the invited speaker and the students which helped to create awareness regarding different issues related to human rights.

Total number of participants: 100 (including Teaching Faculties, Principal)

Outcome:

- 1) The students gained deeper understanding of their rights and the importance of protecting the rights of others.
- 2) The students developed the confidence and skills to voice concerns and advocate for justice and equality in their communities.
- 3) The event highlighted the college's commitment to social justice, fostering a culture of inclusivity and responsibility.
